Forest Bather | shinrin-yoku

What precious things lay hidden. These works are responses to the atmosphere that nature creates. Nyree's studio is surrounded by trees and bush land which at last light provides the perfect viewing room for clouds and the sunset. The forest calm, sounds, birds, trees the bits in-between. Seems so pure and sacred. A constant reminder of the earth's inviolability and why we must protect it.

Mingenew Netball Club – Weekly Wrap Up

Date: 2nd September 2023

Grade: B Grade

Mingenew v Three Springs

Final score MingeneW 49 – Three Springs 27

PRELIMINARY FINAL

Last week we said we would bring courage, fight and heart to this weeks prelim final- and by crikey did they ever!!

The beaming smiles, the joy in the girls eyes, the strength I knew they have, they found again.

After feeling despondent and flat after last weeks loss, and the girls saying they just didn't feel like their heads were in the game, we had a bit of a pump up at training during the week and the girls found that grit again.

We started off goal for goal with Three Springs, and to Three Springs credit they started super strong also. At half time there was only a few goals in it, but my girls felt confident and the passion for the game was written all over their faces.

We just got better and better! The wonderful team just kept the stamina up, the shooting was insane, the defence turning balls over and the centre court working and linking wonderfully.

We ended up winning by 22 goals 🥅🥅🥅

We finished the day celebrating with our seasons windup- even though we have 1 job left to finish- the GRAND FINAL next Saturday in Morawa against Coorow.

Our fairest and best went to our Captain Brooke Hoskins, Runner up Fairest & Best was our defensive star Shannah Kanny. Our coaches award was to our utility player Madi George and players player to the Belgium goal keeper Antje.

Coach, Roz
