ANZAC DAY IN MINGENEW

By Oscar McTaggart

We woke up at five thirty (or four forty for me) it was still dark outside but I knew we were up for a good reason. We drove into town, when we got there I sat down just as the bus with all the army cadets rocked up. We saw the cadets do cool things with their wooden guns. The cadets looked like silhouettes in the morning sun.

My brother, Angus read NOT A HERO. The poem is about a digger telling a young boy what hero's really are and the importance of remembering those who didn't return from war. It made me think about my great grandfather R.K Pearse and my great uncle Eric Pearse who fought in World war Two. Eric never came back from war and his name is on a plaque in the shire office.

By the time we got down to the gunfire breakfast it was already six thirty. I had a bacon sandwich with egg. My Mum and I stayed till eight thirty to help, I did some climbing around the place while mum cleaned inside.

When we got home we made Anzac biscuits it was really fun. I was a bit tired at the service but now I'm not tired any more. The service was so fun and I saw lots of my friends. It was a great day.

Mingenew v Morawa

Mingenew 37– Morawa 28

Game 1, Round 1

Players player award sponsored by Mingenew IGA – Natarsha Cocking

Coaches award sponsored by Smyth Agri Services - Zoe Jones

The Mingenew Netball Club has been enthusiastic with pre-season for the 2024 Netball season.

A grade team have 11 players to represent Mingenew Netball Club for 2024 season.

The versatility listed is a refreshing choice to have as a coach with all aspects of the netball court sufficiently covered with multiple if not more options of players.

With the introduction of “rolling subs” into Netball, we were excited to see how this would work and affect our game. It was a good option to have with the heat on Saturday in Morawa, we were given the opportunity to roll players on and off during the quarter.

As always, first games are always about nerves and working out how each other plays in a real game and not at training.

The score was close for majority of game. Our defenders made turnovers, which then gave the shooters the opportunity to convert and give us a slight lead.

Really impressed with the first game of the season and looking forward to the rest of the season.

Game 2, Round 1

Players Player Award sponsored by Mingeneu IGA – Brooke O’Brien / Nicole Broad

Coaches Award sponsored by Smyth Agri Services – Thalia Drummond

With this game being the first home game for Mingeneu, everyone was excited.

We had good reflection of the Morawa game at training on Wednesday night. Few key points were taken out of our first game, nothing too drastic, but always good to fine tune things.

We were uncertain of the Coorow team that was playing – as this is their first game in A Grade for the 2024 season.

Our team of 11 is always positive, works well together and is always looking on ways to improve.

Our shooting combinations worked well, and accuracy and rebounding was on point.

The defensive pressure applied across the whole court was very good to see from all players, especially in the opposition shooting circle.

We managed to utilise the rolling subs rule and it was a seamless transition.

In the end our defensive pressure and accuracy with shooting, we came away with the win.

I am looking forward to training and working with the ladies to keep building on our combinations.

We are now planning on Game 3 in Three Springs.

Mingenew 55– Morawa 4

Game 1, Round 1

Players player award sponsored by Mingenew IGA- Clare Mitchell

Coaches award sponsored by Starick Transport- Tanya Burges

We have had 6 weeks under our belts, working on fitness and then finding where our 11 players are best suited for this team.

We have been very lucky that we have a great number of girls for all 3 sections of the court.

With the introduction of “rolling subs” in to Netball, we were excited to see how this would work and affect our game.

We started super strong in our first game, with the girls working so beautifully! It was a pleasure to watch and so exciting to see different combinations of our girls working together! We were able to sub players when fatigue set in with our usual warm first game!!

Our shooters were working in sync and backing each other, our centre court were running and feeding our goalies superbly, and our defence were not giving an inch to their opposition and making turnovers.

I’m SO excited to see how our 2024 season unfolds- these ladies have heart, fire and a fantastic attitude.

Mingenew 5 – Morawa 15

Game 1, Round 1

Players player award sponsored by Mingenev Tyre Service – Molly Smyth

Coaches award sponsored Peter & Kate Mills – Chloe Michael

What a first game!

This year we have a team consisting of 5 x Year 6's and 6 x Year 5's.

These 11 players are all very excited to be playing netball again.

We hit the court in Morawa on Saturday and for the first quarter it was all about getting comfortable in their positions, having fun, and hopefully getting goals.

We finally hit the score board in 2nd quarter and that got everyone excited, including spectators.

All the players – focused on the basics and the positive encouragement which was really good to hear.

I'm very enthusiastic about coaching our junior netball side and excited for the rest of the season.

Game 2, Round 1

With this being our first home game for the 2024 Season, we were all very excited.

The D grade netballers had a good training on Wednesday, reflecting on the game we played in Morawa.

I was very impressed with the eagerness to address some key points of error that were made in a first game.

We took the court on Saturday v Coorow, excited and eager to make amends from Morawa and try and work on new skills we learnt at training.

I was very happy to hear during the week some of the players have been practicing shooting in their own time at the netball courts. I encourage those that wish to play in a shooting position to practice, as this will provide you with more confidence.

Both teams played very well, it was such a close game right to the end.

In the end our defensive pressure and accuracy with shooting, we came away with the win.

I am looking forward to training and working on our skills more, then planning for game 3 in Three Springs.

MINGENEW HOCKEY CLUB

GAME 1: MORAWA V MINGENEW

Ah, field hockey in 35-degree heat—felt just like playing in a sauna. The sun was blazing, turning the field into a giant griddle, and you could almost hear the sizzling from the sidelines. Despite the sweltering conditions, Kayla and Grace, our rookie power duo, took to the field for their first game ever. They might have been sweating buckets, but they weren't about to let a little thing like heatstroke slow them down.

The game kicked off, and Tilly and Campbell, our designated marathon runners, immediately took charge of the bulk running. These two were everywhere, sprinting back and forth as if they were immune to the laws of thermodynamics. Corrina was the same proving that a few years off and multiple surgeries couldn't stop her. It's so lovely to have her back—although consensus was that while we will keep her, her socks with all the holes in them may need retiring.

Pip, known for her commitment, decided to literally put her body on the line. She threw herself into a particularly heated play and walked away with a swollen wrist sporting the dimples of the hockey ball.

Meanwhile, Zoe pulled off a stunning feat of endurance. She'd already played a full game of netball before showing up, and she was still running circles around everyone else. I mean, when do you sleep, Zoe? She made it clear that she wasn't just here to play; she was here to win.

Bec, our fearless goalie, was back in the net, fending off shots like a ninja deflecting throwing stars. She made save after save, reminding everyone that a little heat wasn't going to melt her resolve. Fi and Rach were on defensive duty, forming a human wall that the opposing team just couldn't break through and some very sold hit outs when required. Thanks to Geoff for the emergency powerades after a frenzied phone call requesting "refreshments for the over 40s old ducks up the back"

Georgia made her return to the field with a 3-month-old baby spectating on the sidelines, proving that you can be both a hockey star and a supermom at the same time. She was juggling baby duty and game time with the skill of a circus performer, making everyone else feel like slackers by comparison. Jerri was having a great time, though. I think I even saw them wave a tiny hockey stick in approval.

Fi was her usual consistent self, gliding down the wing with grace and the determination of a heat-seeking missile. The other team couldn't keep up, and they spent most of the game trying to catch her shadow.

Many thanks to our wonderful new recruit Tara. Although she was mostly out of playing this week with a nasty cold, she was a brilliant coach and cheerleader.

Despite the blistering heat, we came out on top, winning 3-1. Goal scorers were Tilly, Fi Dempster and Campbell. Our team celebrated with what little energy we had left, which mostly involved collapsing in the shade and guzzling gallons of water. But hey, a win's a win, and there's nothing like the feeling of victory—even if it comes with a side of heat exhaustion. Can't wait to do it all over again!

MINGENEW V COOROW

The Mingeneew Hockey team just played a game against Coorow that could only be described as "character-building." If there was a theme, it would be "Less Heat, Less Bench, More Running." With only one sub to start, we knew we'd have to pace ourselves. But when Corrina went off with an injury in the first quarter, it became clear that pacing wasn't going to be part of the plan.

Everyone played hard. Campbell positioned himself strategically and called for the ball with authority, keeping us on our toes. Tilly ran like she was training for a marathon, while Rach's long arms seemed to be everywhere, covering the entire field. Tara and Fi directed play with the precision of traffic cops in rush-hour.

In goal, Bec was spectacular. If she wasn't stopping shots, she was stopping Coorow from taking them in the first place and earned our players award this game. Meanwhile, Grace and Kayla, our fresh faces, embraced new positions with enthusiasm. Georgia and Zoe couldn't stop running; we suspect they're secretly training for a triathlon. Zoe claims she ran out of stamina by the 4th quarter but who wouldn't after playing a game of netball too.

The final score was 6-0 in favor of Coorow, but that didn't reflect how hard we played. If effort were points, we'd have won by a landslide. Here's to next week's game, where we'll bring more subs, more energy drinks, and maybe even a strategic time-out or two. Because we don't give up without a fight!
